POLICY:

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, U.S. Code) governs the reproduction, distribution, adaptation, public performance, and public display of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in law, Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh (CLP), a nonprofit library, is authorized to lend copies of books, magazines, audiobooks, DVDs, CDs, electronic books and computer programs to customers on a nonprofit basis and for nonprofit purposes. Any person who makes an unauthorized copy or adaptation of these items, redistributes the loan copy or publicly performs or displays the materials, except as permitted by Title 17 of the United States Code, may be liable for copyright infringement.

CLP’s Photocopy Department and Pittsburgh Photographic Library adhere strictly to the copyright law. All of CLP’s photocopy machines are posted with a copyright notice (attached). Neither staff nor customers are permitted to make more than one photocopy or print of copyrighted printed materials. Neither staff nor customers are permitted to duplicate copyrighted library audio, video or electronic materials.
