Part III, line la:

Circulating Collections - The circulating collections (materials including books, periodicals, audio visual, etc.) are not recognized as assets in the statements of financial position. Purchases of collection items are expensed and recorded as a decrease in net assets without donor restrictions in the year in which the items are acquired (of which approximately $4.7 and $4.8 million was acquired in 2018 and 2017, respectively). Proceeds from the sale of circulating collection items would be used to acquire other collection items or for the care of the collections.

Special Collections - The Library's special collections, which were $32054 10-29-19 Schedule D (Form 990) 2018 Schedule D (Form 990) 2018 Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh 25-0965281 Page 5 [Part XIII] Supplemental Information (continued) primarily acquired through contributions since the Library's inception, consist of rare books, folios and maps, and archival holdings (primarily its own institutional archives) that are held for educational, research, and special curatorial purposes. Special collection items are not recognized as an asset on the statement of financial position. Purchases of new special collection items (none in 2018 and 2017) would be recorded as a decrease in net assets without donor restrictions in the year the items were acquired, or as a decrease to net assets with donor restrictions if the assets used to purchase collections were restricted by donors. Contributed collection items are not reflected in the GAAP financial statements.

All special collections are subject to appropriate stewardship measures (catalogued, preserved and cared for as appropriate, finding aids created, and activities verifying their existence and assessing their condition). Proceeds from the sale of collections or insurance recoveries (of which there was an insurance recovery of approximately $6.3 million in 2018 and none in 2017) would be reflected as revenue resulting in an increase in net assets with donor restrictions.

Part III, line 4:

Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh makes available to the public a collection of approximately 4.8 million books, periodicals, audiovisual items and other materials from the Main Library, the Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped and 19 neighborhood locations. Most items may be borrowed by library cardholders for use at home, work, or school. Some unique, expensive, or frequently consulted materials are for use in the library only. This collection is the foundation for the Library's Schedule D (Form 990) 2018

Form 990, Par	t III, Line 1, Description of Organization M	iseion	:

The mission of Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh is to engage our community in literacy and learning.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments: Today, our system consists of 19 locations, including the Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, which serves Pennsylvania residents who have difficulty reading due to a physical impairment, reading disability or vision challenge. The Library Support Center in the West End, which is not a public services outlet, provides shipping and other collection services to all libraries in Allegheny County.

While books remain the heart of the library, Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh has transformed into a community cornerstone that focuses on workforce and economic development, education and neighborhood

helps transform their lives through life-long learning, d	igital literacy and connections to others. Carnegie Library of P	ittsburgh is a connector through which ideas, people and organizations i	nteract to create positive change. Across neighborhoods, age groups,	demographics, platforms and time, the Library promotes literacy and sup	ports a community that values patron-centered services, welcoming	spaces,
innovation, curiosity, tolerance, respect and the acquisi	tion of knowledge. Through the community's investment, the Librar	y is able to do this and much more, helping to make life better for pe	ople in our region.

Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh serves as a community anchor, reaching into the neighborhoods of our city where the Library is often the only resource for families who need help to access information, use computers for homework or job searching, and strengthen their literacy and language skills. The Library's locations are open 996.5 hours a week, providing daytime and evening availability to customers of all ages and backgrounds. Most locations are open six days a week and four locations are open seven days a week, providing a welcoming space for all. Online resources-including eBooks, databases, music and career and educational resources-can be accessed online 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

As a free public library, Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh makes available to the public at no charge a collection of approximately 4.8 million items, access to the Internet, public wireless access (52 million minutes used in 2018), computers and other technologies, and reference and other services. Every day, Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh supports Pittsburghers with early childhood education and out of school learning programs and myriad services for families, seniors, veterans, entrepreneurs and immigrants, among others. In 2018, the Library hosted more than 2.8 million visitors to its physical locations and almost 4.5 million visits to its website. More than 4.5 million items, including eResources, circulated and approximately 13,000 programs and events were held with nearly 300,000 participants in attendance.

In 2018, 1,195 volunteers generously contributed more than 38,000 hours of service to support their neighbors and almost 4,000 individuals and organizations contributed financially to the Library to support essential services. With the support of our community, people of all ages have free and equal access to information and life-long learning opportunities.

Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh's 2018-2022 strategic plan includes specific goals and strategies to ensure that the Library fulfills its role as a community anchor, providing quality programs and services that meet the information needs of all residents, inside and outside of library walls. The Library seeks to expand education, skills and knowledge for all by providing professional expertise and access to resources and robust databases, encouraging exploration and creativity. Additionally, the leadership of the Library has embarked on a multi-year major gifts initiative, Realize: Our Power, Our Potential, designed to preserve the great legacy of our region by strengthening the Library system and ensuring its long-term sustainability.
