A Visit from Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh

Which Book Did We Read?:

My Favorite Color: I Can Only Pick One?
By Aaron Becker

Children learn by talking with you. Ask:
What is your favorite color?

Check out this great Virtual Library Resource:
- Pittsburgh Reads 5!
  Summer Reading at Carnegie Library starts June 13th!
  www.carnegielibrary.org/summer

Play With Paint!
By Jenny Pinkerton

Baby Sees Colors!
By Akio Kashiwara

Reading Readiness Tip:
Reading 20 minutes a day with a child is a great practice to start early and continue on through school. For babies and toddlers, focus on rhythm, repetition and rhyme, which will promote early literacy. For older children, reading 20 minutes a day will grow vocabulary.

Want to know more? carnegielibrary.org

Talking, singing, reading, writing and playing with young children helps them to be ready to read in Kindergarten. You are your child's first and most important teacher.

Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh
130 S. Whitfield Street
Pittsburgh, PA 15206
Over Your
Orange and purple.
Green and blue. (repeat with other arm)
Arm in an arc over head to connect with the other hand
Red and yellow, (lay hands palm up on knees, move one head)
The sun is here, (make a circle with your arms over your down)
The rain is gone, (wiggle fingers while moving hands)
Now a Rainbow Will Appear!

Over Your
Orange and purple.
Green and blue. (repeat with other arm)
Arm in an arc over head to connect with the other hand
Red and yellow, (lay hands palm up on knees, move one
head)
The sun is here, (make a circle with your arms over your down)
The rain is gone, (wiggle fingers while moving hands)
Now a Rainbow Will Appear!

Who visited your class today?

And The Little Fur Family,
Favorite books are Where the Wild Things Are
and riding her bike with her son. Some of her
Mrs. Laura loves reading. Hiking in the woods
Early Learning Outreach Specialist
Laura Hughes

And The Little Fur Family,
Favorite books are Where the Wild Things Are
and riding her bike with her son. Some of her
Mrs. Laura loves reading. Hiking in the woods
Early Learning Outreach Specialist
Laura Hughes

Who visited your class today?