A Visit from Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh

Which Book Did We Read?:

Off to See the Sea
By Nikki Grimes

This Beach is Loud!
By Samantha Cotterill

Hello Summer!
By Shelley Rotner

Children learn by talking with you. Ask:
What are some of your favorite summer activities?

We learned a new word:
glistening (adj) shining with a sparkling light
“Glistening soap bubbles sail into the air.” from Off to See the Sea by Nikki Grimes

Reading Readiness Tip:
When children act out a story, they experience it through several senses, which leads to greater comprehension. Encourage your child to “put on a play” of a story from storytime, or encourage them to act out another favorite tale.

Talking, singing, reading, writing and playing with young children helps them to be ready to read in Kindergarten. You are your child’s first and most important teacher.

Down by the Bay (Ocean themed)

(shark/afraid of the dark) (yellowfish/making a wish)
Down by the bay
With a polka-dot tail
Have you ever seen a whale
My mother would say:
If I do,
I dare not go,
Back to my home.
Where the watermelon grow,
Down by the bay.

and The Little Fur Family

Favorite books are Where the Wild Things Are and riding her bike with her son. Some of her favorite things are reading, hiking in the woods, and learning Outreach Specialist.
