Children learn by talking with you. Ask:
What kinds of animals have fur?

Reading Readiness Tip:
The brains of young children are activated when they hear their name. When you are trying to direct their attention, say their name, followed by the most important word. For instance, “Zaina, ball”.

Sleeping Bunnies
See the bunnies sleeping
Till it’s nearly noon. (pretend to be sleeping)
Shall we go and wake them
With a merry tune?
They’re so still! Are they ill?
No! Wake Up little bunnies! (hop or make a bunny with your pointer and index finger)
Hop little bunnies, hop little bunnies
Hop little bunnies, hop hop hop!
Hop little bunnies, hop little bunnies
Hop little bunnies, hop hop hop!
