

Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, Music Department

Title: The Spectator: Pittsburgh's Municipal and Civic Journal: Annual Musical Number

Overview of the Collection

Reference Code: The Spectator : Pittsburgh's Municipal and Civic Journal : Annual Musical Number - rq
ML200.8 .P6 S64x PITTSBURGH SHELF 1910-1912

Creator: George A. Levy

Dates: 1910 - 1912

Extent: 1 box

Language: English

Repository:

Music Department, Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh-Main, 4400 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA
15213

Acquisition Information: N/A

Copyright: N/A

Restrictions: None

Requested Citation: The Spectator: Pittsburgh's Municipal and Civic Journal: Annual Musical Number,
Music Department, Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh

Finding Aid Created by: Joelle Killebrew, Kathy Klemens

Notes on the Collection

Historical Note

The Spectator, founded and edited by George A. Levy, was a weekly Pittsburgh news magazine published in the early 1900's. The annual musical numbers contain articles contributed mainly by prominent Pittsburgh musical educators, conductors, and leaders of the time. It also contains advertisements for Pittsburgh piano dealers and other music businesses, and Pittsburgh music schools and private teachers.

Scope and Content

The Spectator, weekly Pittsburgh news magazine, annual musical numbers from 1910 – 1912. One box contains these 3 volumes.

Container List

BOX 1

Index for Musical Number - November 4, 1910; volume 3, no. 6

Article Title	Author	Pages
The Civic Importance of Music--A Plea for Our People		1
The Democratization of Music in the Metropolis		2, 4
Relation of a City to Its Art	T. Carl Whitmer	4
Why Import Grand Opera Artists?	Alice Nielsen	4
My Experience in Obtaining "Canned" Indian Music	Charles Wakefield Cadman	7
My Present Crisis--Highway or Byway?		7
The Unfinished Symphony--A Story for Music Lovers	William Viehman	8
A Short History of the Apollo Club	Rinehart Mayer	9
A Fine Tenor Voice (Paul Kennedy Harper)		9
An Important Addition (Winifred Funkey Perry)		9
Letters from Orchestra Authorities to the Spectator		10-11
The Man--The Money--The Masses (LOAS)	Frank Damrosch	10
A Matter of Education and Comfort (LOAS)	Henry L. Higginson	10
Good Management--Very Rare (LOAS)	Leopold Stokovski	10
Give Young Men a Chance (LOAS)	Victor Herbert	10
Embodying Frederick Thomas' Ideas	Rose Fay Thomas	10-11
Pittsburgh's Grand Old Man of Music		11
Has Won National Distinction (Christine Miller)		11
The Mozart Club Enters into Its Thirty-Third Year	William R. Berger	12-13
Importance of an Orchestra for Pittsburgh	Gustave Mahler	13
Climate and the Voice	Adah Thomas	13
A Great Advertising Patronage		14

A Judicial Shame		14
Newspaper Influence and Berry		14
A Challenge of Quality		14
A Crisis in the City		14
Opinions of Things as They Pass	John H. Dietrich	15
The Season's Plans (Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra)		16-17
Musical Education and "Going to Concerts"	Beveridge Webster	18
The Methods of Nature	J. A. Homan	18
Music and Poetry as Illustrated by "Saul" and "Abt Vogler"	Catherine J. Elston	19
A Pitcher of Mignonette	Emerson St. George	19
Singing in English--A Talk with Miss Griffiths		20
As to Church Music----"God is Merciful"	Charles Albert Graninger	20
The Mission of the Piano	W. K. Steiner	21
Director T. Carl Whitmer		21
Three Great Orchestras in Four Brilliant Concerts: The Famous Conductors		22
"I Thought You Were A Gentleman"	Frank J. Brosky	23
Acoustics of our Music Halls	Dallmeyer Russell	24
Mary I. Johnstown on "Methods"		24
Tuesday Musical Club		24
Mrs. Jane Lang-Graninger		24
Franz Kohler, Concertmeister		24
Music Personals		25,31
A Few Facts About a Most Delightful Studio		26
A Local Pianist who is Meeting with Great Success (Dallmeyer Russell)		26
Four Renowned Artists in Early Performances		28

An Out-of-Town Tribute (Helen Keil)		29
Experienced in Ontario (Anna Laura Johnson)		29
Affiliated With Societies (Silas J. Titus)		29
Klein Writes Another Great Play	S. Jay Kaufman	30

Index for Second Annual Musical Number - November 3, 1911; volume 5, no. 6

Article Title	Author	Pages
Music and the People of Our Great City		3
Popular Music in Pittsburgh	Charles N. Boyd	4-5
Atmosphere--From a Musical Viewpoint	Dix Bysselle	5
A Few Timely Thoughts for Singers	Morris Stephens	6
Bissell Conservatory of Music		6
Where is Pittsburgh's Henry L. Higginson?	Frank Moore	7
Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow of Organ Music	Harvey B. Gaul	8
A Chat with Walter Damrosch	Edith Darlington Denniston	8-9
Some Musical Uplifts ; Also Pittsburgh	T. Carl Whitmer	9
The Orchestra Idea	Julia Botsford Whitney	10
Some Pertinent Pointers for the Audience	Edith Darlington Denniston	10
Is the Student Greater Than the Art?	Ralph Butler Savage	11
What They Say of the Local Musical Situation: Interviews with Members of the Orchestra Association		12
Five Great Orchestras in Five Great Concerts		13
Phases of Music and Art in Pittsburgh	Adele Fay Williams	14
The Mission of the Modern Teacher of Singing	Anne Griffiths	15
Harold Bauer--A Short Sketch	Dallmeyer Russell	15

Our Musical Number		16
No Money for Hump Cutting		16
A Successful Event		16
Taft Firm as a Rock		16
"The Spectator's" Advertisers		16
Ideal Interpretation for Piano Students--How to Attain It	W. K. Steiner	17
Be Merciful, Ye Critics of the Critic	Paul K. Harper	18
A Few Words with Mr. Charles Le Sueur		18
A Musical Truth: If Not a Truth It Cannot Live (Dedicated to the Pianistic World)	Joseph H. Gittings	20-21
Steiff Pianos: A Favorite with Musicians, Used in More than Two Hundred Colleges and Schools of Music		21
Sharps and Flats		22
A Very Popular Singer (Martha Miner Richards)		24
An Accomplished Pianist (Adele Reahard)		24
A Busy Soprano (Grace Hall Riheldaffer)		26
Canton Symphony Orchestra		26
Some Facts About Caspar P. Koch		26
A Recent Musical Addition (Frank Taylor Ostrander)		26
Musical Notes		28-30
Male Choir Has Fine Leader: Conductor Ernest Has Had Notable Career		30
Theaterland		32

Index for Third Annual Music Number - November 29, 1912; volume 7, no. 10

Article Title	Author	Pages
Larger Municipal Appropriations for Music: Local Composers Not Accorded Proper Appreciation--Going Away from Home for Recognition--Great Factor in Elevating Humanity		3
The American National Anthem: The History and Mystery of the "Star Spangled Banner"	C. E. Le Massena	4-6

The Scientific Phase of Voice Teaching: Definite Knowledge and Clear Thinking on Part of Teacher the Great Essentials	Frank Milton Hunter	7-8
Five Great Concerts by Five Great Orchestras		8
Meloplasts	T. Carl Whitmer	9
New Violins versus Old Violins	G. M. Francois	10-11
Why Should Our Children Study Music?	Ethel Herr Litchfield	11
Appreciation of the Work of Heinrich Germer: Life Long Endeavor to Bring Others to a Knowledge of the Truth	W. K. Steiner	12-13
The Promotion of Musical Education	Arthur G. Burgoyne	14-15
Appearance---Its Value	Harvey B. Gaul	15
Recognition for Music		16
Early Christmas Shopping		16
Harnessing Contradictions		16
Taxing Billboards		16
Continuation of Good Times		16
Mayor Magee Sings of Municipal Ownership: Opportunity for Installing New Political Machine of Tremendous Power---Council Should Pass Subway Ordinance At Once		17
The Art of Music Conceals a Science: Some Quality Common to All Musicians Back of the Ability of Performers	Beveridge Webster	18
Madame Melba		18
The Art of the Accompanist	Blanche Sanders Walker	19
Analogies of Impressions	Adele Fay Williams	20

The Cult of the Child in Music: Being a Resume of Some Opinions of the Influence of Musical Feeling in the Playgrounds by Miss Beulah Kennard, President of the Pittsburgh Playground Association	Adele Fay Williams	22-23
Proper Voice Training	Helen H. Hassler	24
Things Musical		26
A Gifted Entertainer (John Rodgers Johnston)		28
On Temperament (George Matthew Adams)		28
A Delineator of the Classics (Charles J. Sippi)		30
One of Pittsburgh's Best Singers		31
Apollo Club Concert		31
Advisability of Children Singing	Morris Stephens	32
The Mendelssohn Choir: A Local Organization of Merit		32

See also

- The Spectator: A Weekly Journal of Incidents & Events
- Spectator: Pittsburgh's Smart Magazine