Part III, line 1a:

Circulating Collections - The circulating collections (materials including books, periodicals, audio visual, etc.) are not recognized as assets in the statement of financial position. Purchases of collection items are expensed and recorded as a decrease in net assets without donor restrictions in the year in which the items are acquired (of which approximately $5.2 million was acquired in 2022). Proceeds from the sale of circulating collection items would be used to acquire other collection items.

Special Collections - The Library's special collections, which were primarily acquired through contributions since the Library's inception, consist of rare books, folios and maps, and archival holdings (primarily its own institutional archives) that are held for educational, research, and special curatorial purposes. Special collection items are not recognized as an asset on the statement of financial position. Purchases of new special collection items (none in 2022) would be recorded as a decrease in net assets without donor restrictions in the year the items were acquired, or as a decrease to net assets with donor restrictions if the assets used to purchase collections were restricted by donors.

All special collections are subject to appropriate stewardship measures (catalogued, preserved, and cared for as appropriate, finding aids created, and activities verifying their existence and assessing their condition).

The Library's policy is that proceeds from the sale of special collection items, or insurance recoveries on the loss of special collection items would be used to purchase suitable new special collection items or used for direct care of the collection. Direct Care for the Library's special collections is defined as expenses to enhance the life, usefulness and quality of the item, that are based on an institutional plan for the special collection. The policy is based upon the FASB's ASU 2019-03, the AAM's ethics, guidelines and recommendation for direct care as well as legal guidance.

Proceeds from the sale of collections or insurance (of which there was an insurance recovery of $0 in 2022) would be reflected as revenue resulting in an increase in net assets with donor restrictions.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

The mission of Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh is to engage our community in literacy and learning.

As a public trust created "for the people," Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh embraces its role in providing open and free access to information that inspires people to engage in literacy and learning.
Through Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, the people of our region are able to develop the literacies and connections that support individual achievement and strengthen the power of community. The Library's core values are to build community, prioritize people, provide access, and enable learning.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

Every day, Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh supports the community with early childhood educational opportunities, out of school learning programs, and myriad services for families, seniors, veterans, entrepreneurs, and immigrants, among others. Our system consists of 19 locations, including CLP-Main and the Library of Accessible Media for Pennsylvanians (LAMP), which serves Pennsylvania residents who have difficulty reading due to physical impairment, reading disability, or vision challenges. The Library Support Center, which is not a public service outlet, provides shared services such as shipping and collections support to all libraries in Allegheny County. The Library's locations offer daytime and evening availability to patrons of all ages and backgrounds, providing a welcoming space for all. Online resources including eBooks, databases, music, and career and educational resources can be accessed 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Currently, all of our 19 branches have returned to operating schedules similar to those in place pre-pandemic, with plans to continue thoughtfully expanding hours. People of all ages visit the Library for book clubs, educational and cultural programs, or simply to connect with others. We have reintroduced core programs including Storytimes, Kids Club, and Teen Time for youth to enjoy books, crafts, and games while making new friends. CLP staff provide information services (in-person and virtually) for individuals interested in topics such as genealogy, social services, specialized research and collections, as well as all aspects of job searching, career development, vocational training, and higher education. The Library offers access to specialized databases, including the Foundation Directory Online, and programming for the nonprofit community. Additionally, information, services, and programs about starting and running a business are available.

In 2022, more than 4.6 million items circulated, including 2.4 million physical items and 1 million electronic items from the Library's catalog and 1.2 million items through LAMP-National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped (NLS-LBPH). CLP welcomed more than 1.2 million visitors into our facilities. Customers also accessed library services through 1 million website visits, 562,000 WiFi sessions, 31.3 million WiFi minutes, 238,000 computer sessions, and 11.2 million minutes of computer use. These statistics indicate that our community values and depends on the Library and the many resources it offers to help meet their diverse needs.

At the start of 2022, CLP joined other large library systems across the country and many others in Allegheny County in going fine free on a permanent basis. The Library no longer charges late fees on items borrowed from or returned to one of our locations. Studies show that overdue fines can keep people away from the library and inequitably restrict access to library resources. As a result, becoming a fine free system has allowed many families to feel more comfortable returning to the Library, some for the first time in many years, and we have been delighted to welcome them back.

CLP continued to work with the Allegheny Regional Asset District (RAD), Allegheny County Library Association (ACLA) and County libraries to implement and enhance a variety of Shared Services initiatives. CLP led successful projects in areas of Collections, Human Resources, Fund Development, and Facilities Management. Recent projects benefiting participating libraries and residents Countywide included: technical support for cataloging items; the Collections Boost program to supplement individual library collections; expanded access to several databases for Countywide use; the launch of a Countywide Library Mobile App to provide users with enhanced access to the shared catalog, patron accounts, and information; HR support to develop personnel manuals and provide legal advice; and consulting support to build library fundraising capacity.

Highlights of 2022 included:

-In June 2022, more than 5,000 people of all ages visited CLP - Main for Summer Reading Extravaganza, our annual kick-off to a fun and exciting season of literacy activities designed to help students go back to school ready to learn. Neighborhood libraries held special events, such as visits from the Pittsburgh Zoo & Aquarium and cultural performances. CLP participated in CitiParks' Summer Meals program by offering nutritional lunches for youth, an important resource for many families who experience increased food insecurity challenges during school breaks.

-In the fall, Kindergarten through Eighth Grade students had access to free, professional, in-person reading and math tutoring support at six locations (CLP - Allegheny, CLP - East Liberty, CLP - Hill District, CLP - Homewood, CLP- Knoxville, and CLP - Sheraden). In addition, free virtual tutoring opportunities were available for students in First through Fifth Grade.

-CLP is also supporting students' learning through CardFest, a pilot project that launched in the fall at two Pittsburgh Public Schools (PPS). This program, inspired by a national initiative promoted by President Barack Obama and led by the Urban Libraries Council, aims for every child enrolled in school to get a library card and access the valuable learning resources available at public libraries. Our goal with CardFest is to improve learning outcomes for all PPS students by connecting students, families, and educators to the many library services and free resources.

-In summer 2022, the Library hosted a group of interns through Learn & Earn, a county-wide summer youth employment program for 14 to 21-year-olds from low-and-moderate income families to gain paid work experience. CLP locations and departments across the system provided work roles and mentorship for teens during this six-week program.

-The Library launched WeLearn to offer volunteer-led, nonformal learning opportunities inside our libraries.

-CLP partnered with Pittsburgh Community Services to offer job fairs, pardon hubs, and records expungement clinics to formerly incarcerated people.

-The Library offered personalized book recommendations to patrons as part of the Library's Reader's Service. More than 1,600 items were recommended.

-The Passport Challenge, announced in November 2022, encourages patrons of all ages to visit all 19 Library locations. Participants have shared (in person and on social media) how much they enjoy meeting staff from across the system, exploring new neighborhoods, and discovering the tailored collections available to each community.

-In December 2022, the Library introduced a new quarterly Program Guide, available through targeted mailings to Pittsburgh households and at all CLP locations. Response has been incredibly positive with many patrons sharing that they were unaware of all that the Library has to offer and that they plan to visit again soon.

LAMP: Library of Accessible Media for Pennsylvanians, a network library of the Library of Congress National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped (NLS-LBPH), served more than 14,500 individuals across the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania during the 2021-22 fiscal year, with the circulation of more than 1.2 million items. Staff answered reference questions, promoted accessible technology, discussed the latest bestsellers and favorite authors, and suggested new titles patrons might enjoy. The print and electronic collections offered by LAMP include large print books, audio-described DVDs, audiobooks and magazines, physical braille books, and downloadable audio and braille services such as books and magazines offered through NLS-LBPH. More information on LAMP services is available at mylamp.org.

Neighborhood libraries: CLP's libraries continued to function as community anchors providing gathering places and promoting lifelong literacy and learning. The Library recently completed an almost two-decade cycle of facility renovations, expansions, and replacements valued at more than $74 million for all our 19 public library locations. To serve our patrons well, these facilities offer modern library features, including the latest technology to help bridge digital divides, and dedicated spaces for children, teens, independent and small group study, and community meetings. CLP's recent renovation projects have resulted in energy efficient, sustainable, welcoming, and fully accessible neighborhood hubs.

In 2022, the Library's comprehensive fundraising campaign, Realize: Our Power, Our Potential, successfully reached its conclusion after eight years. Throughout this campaign, CLP raised $51.7 million, raising an average of $6.5 million annually. In addition to supporting the Library's operating budget, our generous contributors supported transformational library programs and services, capital projects, and long-term sustainability initiatives. The latter category included gifts for endowments, future gifts through wills and trusts, and other planned gifts that help ensure that the Library can continue providing people of all ages with free and equal access to information and opportunities for decades to come.

In May 2022, the Library welcomed Andrew Medlar as our 12th President and Director. Andrew served previously as Director of BookOps at New York Public Library (NYPL), leading the shared services organization responsible for the strategic management, technical services, and distribution needs of 152 locations of NYPL and Brooklyn Public Library. Throughout the national search process, Andrew's work to increase community engagement, actively lead and facilitate shared services, and improve equity, diversity, and inclusion outcomes for employees and patrons stood out as skills that will greatly benefit the Library and Pittsburgh as we begin to plan strategically for years to come.

As it has done since its founding, the Library is ready to help all people thrive in a rapidly changing world. Together we can realize the potential of our Library and our community.
