This event features seed stories, conversations with gardening experts, hands-on activities for children and teens, and a selection of free seeds for the public. Guests who bring untreated, non-GMO seeds to share will be eligible to enter a raffle of fun items from Phipps Conservatory, Grow Pittsburgh, and Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh!

Reading Readiness Tips:

So Much Snow contains rhymes, alliterative phrases and repeating words, all of which will help encourage your child's Phonological Awareness skills. Phonological Awareness is being able to hear and play with the smaller sounds in words. While reading this book together you can point out the alliterative phrases like "mountains melting", "things thawing", etc. and try to find other words that start with the same sound. This will help grow your child's phonological awareness skills.

We All Plant the Seeds

Tune: Farmer in the Dell

We all plant the seeds, we all plant the seeds,
hi, ho the derry-o, we all plant the seeds!

The rain begins to fall, the rain begins to fall,
hi, ho the derry-o, the rain begins to fall!

Other Verses:

The sun begins to shine...

The plant begins to grow...
